

54 Revocation/Suspension Reinstatement

How can a person obtain reinstatement?

In most cases, after the period of suspension expires, a person may either mail the $50 fee to the DMV or go to a DMV Service Center to pay the $50 fee and DMV will replace the license. If the license has expired, the person must also pay the appropriate renewal fee.

A person whose license was revoked must appear at a DMV Service Center and:

- complete an application
- take any required tests
- provide proof of identity
- pay a $50 reinstatement fee for a new license

What other requirements apply?

Except for a person revoked for a first offense of OWI, a person whose driving privilege is revoked must file proof of financial responsibility with the division continuously for three years following the end of the withdrawal period.

Proof of financial responsibility is usually a certificate (SR-22) issued by an insurance company licensed to do business in Wisconsin. The SR-22 must certify that the person has liability insurance in the amounts of at least $25,000 and $50,000, for personal injury or death and $10,000 for property damage. A person can also post a bond or make a cash deposit for these amounts with DMV.
